

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENERGY SECRETARY RICK PERRY
TO SPEAK AT
NATIONAL PETROLEUM COUNCIL MEETING

WASHINGTON, D.C., September 11, 2017—National Petroleum Council (NPC) Acting Chair Greg L. Armstrong announced today that the 127th meeting of the Council will be held on Monday, September 25, in Washington, D.C. The meeting agenda will feature remarks from Secretary of Energy Rick Perry.

The NPC meeting will begin at 3:00 p.m., in the George Washington Room of The Hay Adams, 800 Sixteenth Street, N.W., and is open to the public. Persons interested in attending are asked to contact the NPC offices in advance to ensure adequate seating.

The NPC is a federal advisory committee to the Secretary of Energy. From 1946 until the implementation of the U.S. Department of Energy Organization Act of 1977, the NPC served as an advisory body to the Secretary of the Interior. The sole purpose of the Council is to advise, inform, and make recommendations to the Secretary of Energy, at his request, on matters pertaining to oil and natural gas or to the oil and gas industries.
